LIMIT GREAT BRITAIN TO ONE VOICE IN PARLEY

Hughes To Remove Possibility of British Controlling Conference

JAN SMUTS MAY ATTEND

Secretary of States Looms as Chief of U. S. Disarmament Delegation

BY A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 25.—The British empire official will have only one voice in the Washington disarmament conference, the United Press was informed today.

Representatives of Britain's self governing dominions will be included in the delegation, but Secretary Hughes, it is understood, will inform Britain that it is the attitude of his government that the empire have but one vote.

The personnel of the British delegation and the dominion representation is arousing speculation. It is expected that all of the Pacific dominions—Canada, Australia and New Zealand, will want to be represented, and it is thought that at least two of the British delegates will be chosen from among Premier Meighan of Canada, Premier Hughes of Australia, and Premier Massey, New Zealand. It is also believed likely that Jan C. Smuts, premier of South Africa, will be a delegate. But whether he will come as a strictly British delegate, or as a representative of South Africa, is uncertain.

Officials here now think it is a certainty that Secretary of State Hughes will head the American delegation.

Former Secretary of State Elihu Root is now regarded as almost a certainty for a place in the American delegation.

FORD ENTHUSIASTIC OVER DISARMAMENT PROPOSAL
WASHINGTON, July 25.—Henry Ford is solidly behind President Harding's disarmament program.

The automobile manufacturer plans to assist the president in removing the causes of war with every resource at his command.

This developed as a result of a frank informal talk between the two during the week-end camping expedition into the Maryland hills.

Ford outlined his disarmament views in an exclusive interview given to the United Press during a quiet hour at the camp.

Munitions makers and international bankers, Ford believes, are trying to keep the war game alive. His plan is to turn the spotlight of publicity upon them and bring the force of public opinion to bear down on any one who attempts to obstruct the disarmament program.

"The munitions makers were responsible for Germany's arming to the teeth," Ford said. "Now they are trying to do the same thing with Japan. With Germany gone, they are trying to find another reason for keeping up the war business and at present they are trying to use Japan as an excuse."

"If we get anywhere with this disarmament business, every man has got to put his soul into it," Ford said. "I think the president is taking exactly the right course. I'm for him absolutely in this."

Ford discussed the alleged "bank-

URGES U. S. TO SEIZE BERGDOLL POT OF GOLD; ACCUSED OFFICER SCORES POINT

United Press Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, July 25.—The alien property custodian should demand that Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll produce the $105,000 in gold which she and her son Grover Cleveland Bergdoll are alleged to have buried during the war, Representative Lohr, Indiana, told the house Bergdoll committee today.

He stated he would seek to have a resolution passed by the committee directing the custodian who recently seized Bergdoll's property to take steps to compel her to produce the gold.

Major Bruce R. Campbell, charged by Mrs. Bergdoll with accepting a $5,000 bribe from her to "fix higher ups" that Grover Bergdoll might be released, scored a point in his defense today.

His father, William R. Campbell, Lexington, Ky., tobacco hoghead manufacturer, corroborated the story of his son as to where he obtained the $5,000, which he deposited with New York brokers about the time

Mrs. Bergdoll says she gave Grover $5,000, for Campbell.

The father testified that the son had in his presence deposited $5,000 with Colonel Milton Young, Lexington race horse king, for speculative purposes.

"I supposed the money was for speculation in futures," said the father. "Then when Bruce came home in 1917 with orders to report to New York, presumably to go overseas, we asked Colonel Young for Bruce's money. He paid me $6,000 in bills and I gave this money to Bruce."

Questioned by his son, the father said the money was in bills, including three of a $1,000 denomination. This coincides with Major Campbell's story.

Major Campbell scored another point in his defense when the Seaboard National bank wired that $5,037 had been deposited in that bank in December 1917, in the account of Laura E. Campbell, his wife, partially shattering the evidence collected by the military intelligence.

MURPHY WINNER IN GRAND PRIX RACE IN FRANCE

LEMANS, France, July 25.—Jimmy Murphy, driving a Deussen, won the 321 mile grand prix here today.

Ralph De Palma finished second, two laps behind Murphy and Jules Goux, was third. Both drove French Ballots.

Murphy made the distance in four hours, 7 minutes, 11 and a half seconds. He maintained an average of 75 miles an hour.

Fourteen machines started. Four American cars, the Deussen team, were cheered as they roared by the starter. The cars were piloted by Murphy, Goux, Boyer and Dubonnet.

Ralph De Palma drew a cheer when he rolled up to the line in a French Ballot. His teammate was Wagner.

FRENCH ORDER MORE TROOPS TO SILESIA

PARIS, July 25.—Disregarding Great Britain's desires, France will send additional troops into Upper Silesia, it was reported semi-officially today.

NEW OIL WELL AT HUNTINGTON FLOWING 2000 BBLs. DAILY

E. J. Miley Gusher Brought In As Big Producer At 2600 Feet

Drilling operations at Huntington Beach were today spurred on with the announcement that oil at the rate of more than 2000 barrels a day was now flowing from the E. J. Miley well No. 1, which was brought in late Saturday afternoon at a depth of 2600 feet.

Indications were that the well was one of the best brought in at the Huntington Beach district. Examination showed the gravity of the oil to be 21, which was said to be extremely high for when a well first produces. The gas pressure was 190 pounds.

The Miley well is located on the Vista Del Mar tract, just on the east side of the railroad tracks and approximately three blocks east of the subway.

It is the first well to produce as much as 2000 barrels a day in that district and the gravity is higher than any yet brought in there, it was said.

The well is owned by E. J. Miley, well known oil operator, who has several other rigs either drilling or under construction and who, it is understood, plans shortly to extend his leases.

The first seventeen hours after the well was brought in showed that close to 1600 barrels of oil has been produced. This would make the average more than 2000 for a day, as good as any brought in at the Huntington Beach field for the past six months, it was said.

WOMAN'S ATTORNEY TO CHANGE PLEA, PLAN

Dan V. Noland, attorney representing Mrs. Lionel Roberts of Balboa, is to appear before City Recorder W. F. Heathman tomorrow in his efforts to clear the court records showing a plea of guilty by the woman to a charge of being an inmate of a house of ill repute.

He will attempt to gain permission of the court to withdraw the plea of guilty and enter a plea of not guilty, by affidavits and testimony he will attempt to convince the court that his client is not guilty and that when she was arrested following a raid on a house occupied by negroes she was the victim of unfortunate circumstances.

"I do not wish to throttle justice, and I don't know what I will do until the evidence is placed before me," said Heathman today. "I do not propose to take the full burden of responsibility and the wishes of the city council as to re-opening the case may govern me to some extent in my final decision."

Noland was here Saturday afternoon and completed arrangements for the proceedings tomorrow.

MR. AND MRS. BISBY RETURN FROM NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bisby were home today from an extensive automobile tour that extended as far north as Vancouver. At Tacoma Bisby attended the convention of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's association, of which Bisby is a past president.

After the convention the tourists went to Ranier park, where they witnessed skiing and other cold weather sports. At Vancouver they met Mrs. A. H. Lyon and daughter, Margaret, by chance. Many other points were visited to and from the northern point to which they went.

They camped out and prepared their meals during the entire trip—and it is the only way to take a vacation, says Bisby.

"In passing, I want to say that nowhere did I see a newspaper that compares with The Register in point of make-up and news," said Bisby.

SOLON WOULD HALT WORK ON WARSHIPS UNDER NEW BILL

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Drastic changes in the naval building programs are provided for in a bill introduced in the senate today by Senator King, Utah, one of the chief opponents of the $400,000,000 naval appropriation bill.

Work upon the battleships South Dakota, Indiana, Montana, North Carolina, Iowa and Massachusetts, will be discontinued as well as on the battle cruiser Ranger, Constitution and The United States under the bill.

The bill directs that the battle cruisers Saratoga, Lexington and Constellation to be converted into airplane carriers and make the money appropriated for the battleships, the construction of which would be stopped, available for that purpose.

The measure also directs the secretary of the navy to make contracts for the construction of four fleet submarines, the construction of which has been authorized.

DROUGHT AND FIRES PERIL EUROPE WITH PLAGUE AND HUNGER

United Press Leased Wire
LONDON, July 25.—All Europe burned today in a drought which brought with it forest fires, crop shortages and the threat of plagues.

Huge fires swept through forests in Northern Britain. Cutting a ten-mile swath, one great fire in Aberdeenshire not only destroyed the woods, but threatened many famous estates.

There was fear that the harvest this year will fall far below the average. Wheat suffered especially. In only a few sections there were light rains, not sufficient to have any effect on the general situation.

Holland also suffered from forest fires, breaking out almost daily in tinders woods. Conflagrations raged today in the provinces of Drenthe and Limburg. In Amersfort hundreds of men were called to fight a fire covering 2000 acres. All crops were threatened.

German scientists were experimenting with dry farming, but with little hope of benefitting the present crop.

Sweden suffered with Germany.

Russia was regarded as a danger spot. Her great fields were blistered. Epidemics of cholera and typhus were breaking out.

Spain's crops wilted in the fields also was a victim of forest fires, brought on by the drought. One such fire started near Trieste, when a powder house blew up, scattering flames into dry underbrush.

Premier Defeats Plan To Bare Ireland Peace Terms

United Press Leased Wire
LONDON, July 25.—Premier Lloyd George today refused to violate the secrecy surrounding his negotiations with Sinn Fein for an Irish peace.

The premier promised, however, to make a statement within a short time, revealing the terms offered "President" De Valera.

His told members of commons who asked him about the offer that in the meantime they should not accept press accounts of the terms.

Influential members of the house of commons had planned to force Premier Lloyd George to give them details of the offer which "President" De Valera is now submitting to Sinn Fein leaders in Dublin. Commons was actuated by several motives.

Chief of these was a nervousness over the nature of the guarantees to Ulster. Another strong motive was commons' desire to take an active part in the coal strike negotiations and other important matters and desires to continue its show of strength.

The premier was believed also to face the necessity of some action to offset a revolt being fomented by the conservative Morning Post, which has continued bitterly to denounce Lloyd George's conferences with Sinn Feiners as "a surrender to the monster gang."

Many newspapers, some of them believed to be quite close to officials who know the terms, have printed what purported to be the offer, but none of them agreed. Men known to be acquainted with them refuse to confirm or deny these printed terms.

However, it was learned, from reliable sources, that the main points of the proposed agreement include home rule along the lines of the South African federation, with complete fiscal autonomy, but with foreign affairs, the army and navy, under control of the imperial government.

COURT FIGHT ON TO BLOCK MOVE BY DIRECTORS IN OIL ROW

Restraining Order Sought To Bar Awarding of Contract

The fight of the dissatisfied stockholders of the Huntington Central Oil company for control of that company went into the Los Angeles courts this afternoon with the filing of a complaint asking for a temporary restraining order enjoining the directors from the execution of a contract it was alleged was to be made this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The case was filed in Judge J. W. Shenk's court.

The complaint is based on the assertion that the board of directors at a meeting Saturday afternoon entered into a tentative agreement with Rhoads and Rhoads to bring well No. 1 back into production, the company to pay all expenses and the firm to take as payment for its services five per cent of the oil production for two years.

The tentative agreement of Saturday afternoon was scheduled to be completed this afternoon at the session of the board of directors, when it was scheduled that the president and secretary should sign the contract tying the company up to the agreement for two years.

To Withhold Approval
It is said that at Saturday's meeting P. W. Foster and C. C. Closson, directors, who have been associated with the dissatisfied directors, refused to give their approval to the plans of the majority of the board.

The complaint this afternoon was filed by T. C. Gould, attorney of Los Angeles and former newspaper man of Santa Ana, Gould is attorney for G. M. Lorraine, city manager of Alhambra, who was made a member of a committee appointed at the meeting of stockholders in this city last Tuesday night to look after the interests of the group in the matter of securing an official stockholders' meeting.

The restraining order is for the purpose of preventing the present board entering into a contract that will obligate the possible new board for a period of two years. It was believed the order would be granted. It is the opinion of Lorraine and others that negotiations for future work of the company should be held in abeyance until a new board is elected or it is definitely decided whether a new board can be elected.

Election August 11
The opportunity for electing a new board will come with a special meeting called officially for August 11 at 10:30 a. m. in Los Angeles by the board of directors.

A meeting of the dissatisfied stockholders has been called for Wednesday night of this week in Los Angeles. It is scheduled to be held at 8 p. m. at Symphony hall, 232 South Hill street, according to announcement of Lorraine.

The purpose of the meeting is reaching an agreement on the personnel of a new board so that all may vote for the men selected. Efforts will be made to secure by proxy shares enough to control the meeting.

Many of the stockholders in Santa Ana and vicinity today were filing proxies with H. J. Selway, who was chairman of two meetings held here.

"30" BULLETINS

CHICAGO, July 25.—Three "black box" confessions to throwing the 1919 world series can be used against them. Judge Hugo Friend struck the blow to the defense in the trial of the seven former White Sox stars charged with selling out to gamblers, late today. The court ruled the statements made by Eddie Cicotte, Joe Jackson and Claude Williams before the grand jury last fall, were admissible as evidence and should be considered by the jury. It was up to the jury to decide whether the confessions were made after immunity had been promised by the state, the court held.

Superior Judge Williams this afternoon sentenced Walter Hill, 64, who pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery, to an indeterminate term of from one to fourteen years in San Quentin. Hill's application for probation was denied. He was arrested at Redding on a warrant based on a complaint sworn to by C. C. Chandler, proprietor of the Main Shoe hospital, here.

URGES Life Term For Autoists Who Flee From Injured Victims

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—Life imprisonment for motorists who deal out death and fail to stop after the accident was urged by Chief of Police Charles Jones here today.

"We're having too many of these occurrences," Jones declared. "There is only one way to stop them, and that is to provide a punishment that will be feared and respected."

"It may be an unavoidable accident in which a motorist strikes a pedestrian, but it is a deadly act to leave the victim dying in the road and speed away for fear of being questioned."

Jones' statement was made immediately after probably fatal injuries sustained by V. L. Webb and John and Albert Alvarado, injured by motorists who sped away and left them without help.

BORAH CHARGES BANKS SUPPORT DEBT REFUNDING

WASHINGTON, July 25.—International bankers with private claims against European nations are behind the movement for funding America's foreign debt over a long period of years, Senator Borah declared in a speech to the senate today.

Borah said the same influences were responsible for the suggestion that the debt be cancelled. The cancellation idea, he said, is not yet dead, its supporters hoping to convert the American people to it after they had succeeded in deferring payments for a long time. They want to do this, he said, so that nothing will interfere with collection of their own claims, which total very large sums.

CHAMBERS BARES INCREASE IN COST OF STATE GOVERNMENT AS HE QUILTS POST

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—The cost of government in California has increased at a greater rate than the population of the state or the wealth of the state, according to the final report of the former State Controller John S. Chambers, issued here.

During the past ten years, the report points out, the cost of the state government has increased 243 per cent. In the same time the state's wealth 60 per cent and the state's population 44 per cent.

The principal cause of the great increase in the state government's cost is due to the assumption of new functions under the name of commissions, says the report. These commissions, while worthy agencies, have been assumed too rapidly, and without due regard to revenue, Chambers says.

A deficit of $2,000,000 will result from the additional appropriations made by the legislature, according to the report.

$36,000 AWARD WON IN COURT ACTION HERE

The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company today was awarded a judgment of $36,965.51 by Superior Judge Z. B. West when M. and Handel Kujawsky of the Alhambra district, named as defendants in a civil action brought by the insurance company, failed to appear in court. The default was entered at noon today when neither the defendants nor their attorneys had appeared.

According to attorneys for the insurance company, the defendants owed the company $30,000 on a promissory note issued in October, 1919. The plaintiffs also hold a mortgage on certain property owned by the defendants and located in the Rancho Las Bolsas. The court decreed that this property be sold by the sheriff subject to the plaintiff's lien and that the proceeds be applied to payment of the amount due from the defendants.

Other claims against the defendants as set forth in the complaint filed by the defendants consisted of $500, alleged to be due as interest on the $30,000 note; $1,596.34, said to have been advanced by the plaintiffs for taxes and assessments on the property involved, $10 for searching the records relative to the title

PLAN NEW YACHT RACE DATE AS CALM BLOCKS RETURN FROM ISLAND

Arrangements were being made today by the Newport Harbor Yacht club for a suitable date on which to stage the yacht race from Balboa to Catalina and back, following the calling off of the race last night due to lack of wind.

Neither the Uncas nor the Viking IV were able to finish the race except under their own motor because of the calm which struck the ships about the time they reached Catalina. The Molly Lew, the third entrant did not start.

The Uncas, commanded by "Doc" Wilson and Johnny Bowers, made good time to Catalina.

"We broke the seal on our engine about 8 o'clock last night," said Wilson today. "At that time we were about fifty miles from Balboa. There was no fun in floundering around without any wind and without competition, however, and we would prefer to race for the cup under better conditions than win it that way."

The Viking IV, under the command of Admiral Soland was unable to reach Catalina and after drifting in the calm for several hours, the crew broke the engine seal and came back to Balboa under power early last evening.

"But there is a ring of bankers—a world ring—that is causing all the trouble," he said. "They work in Washington, in London, and all around the world. It was that kind of a ring around the kaiser that got Germany into trouble. They put up the money, munition makers made the guns and powder, and the people got killed and maimed."

Ford took opportunity to indicate that he felt his views regarding the Jewish race had been misstated. "I have hundreds of Jews working in my plant at Detroit," he said. "I'm not talking about that kind of people. It's those who are in the international banking ring that I'm fighting."

BANK PLOT CASE MAN SENTENCED TO SAN QUENTIN

Superior Judge Z. B. West today sentenced William Wignall, convicted by a jury of criminal conspiracy in defrauding the First National bank of Yorba Linda out of $300, to a term of from one to ten years in San Quentin.

The prison will not be an unfamiliar sight to Wignall, for he had been out of the penitentiary less than a month when he entered into a conspiracy with three other bank artists to defraud the bank.

Wignall served two years of a three-year sentence for passing a fictitious check in Kings county.

C. P. Huey, who with S. M. Davis acted as counsel for Wignall during his trial, did not appear in court this morning to make a plea for probation in Wignall's behalf. Huey informed Judge West that "a multitude of things" made it impossible for him to be here today.

It was Huey's request that the pronouncement of sentence was continued from last Friday to today. Huey was not present last Friday but intimated in a letter to Judge West that he desired to make a plea for a new trial.

Himself Asks New Trial.
Wignall himself made a motion for a new trial on the ground that the court had erred in instructing the jury and other technical grounds. Judge West promptly denied the motion.

The prisoner then made a lengthy plea for probation. He flatly denied that he had a hand in the conspiracy by which the Yorba Linda bank was defrauded of $300. He declared that he did not know any of the men with whom he is alleged to have conspired and that he was not in Yorba Linda April 15, the date the offense was committed.

Wignall asserted that he was a victim of circumstances. He said that he went to Long Beach April 18 in search of his wife and son and found that they had gone East. He was wandering along the pike, he said, when a messenger boy approached him. It was then that he was arrested. He flatly denied that he had been to a jewelry store in Long Beach to cash a worthless draft.

The prisoner sought to prove that he was in Los Angeles at the time that he is alleged to have been in Yorba Linda. He said that he did not know where Yorba Linda was and never heard of the place until the time of his preliminary hearing.

Probation Denied.

In connection with his previous prison record Wignall told Judge West that Superior Judge M. S. Short of Handford, Kings county, sent him to San Quentin rather than to the county jail in the hope of breaking him of the liquor habit to which he says he was addicted. Judge West said that he doubted this.

"I would like to grant you probation," said Judge West, "but you are not entitled to a squint at it. Your application for probation will be denied and it is the judgment of this court that you be confined in San Quentin for not less than one year nor more than ten."

Wignall then gave notice of appeal to a higher court. Commitment papers were issued by the district attorney immediately after the pronouncement of sentence and the prisoner will be taken to San Quentin without further delay.

Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley said that Wignall had absolutely no grounds for an appeal, but that he would have the privilege of taking one if he desired to. Wignall and three other men representing themselves as oil promoters deposited two fictitious checks with the Yorba Linda bank and later withdrew $300 in cash on a personal note.

FEARS BURGLARY AS HIS KEYS ARE STOLEN

A Schiff, 510 East Fourth street, second hand furniture dealer, today notified the police department that the keys to his store and to his automobile and tire lock were stolen this morning.

Schiff said that a customer came into his place of business about the time that he opened up this morning. He had just unlocked the door and left the key in it with several others hanging on a ring.

While he was busy waiting on the customer the keys disappeared from the door. Schiff now fears that his place will be robbed, inasmuch as the person who has his keys would find it an easy matter to gain entrance to his shop.

City and County

Discussion of the community services planned to be held in Birch park during August will be the business of the Santa Ana Ministerial association dinner-meeting at James' cave tomorrow, according to the Rev.
John Oliver, pastor of the First Methodist church, and president of the association. The Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and the Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian church, form the committee which is arranging tentative programs for the coming services.

Tomato seeds, how grown, the market, and soil conditions necessary to successful growing, will be told to Rotarians by A. B. Haven, of the Haven Seed company, at the regular meeting of the club at St. Ann's international tomorrow. The company has formed a big enterprise on Edinger street and Haven has been asked to address the club. It was the expectation of the committee today that additional entertainment features will be provided, negotiations being in progress today. The committee is composed of Fred Ross,
Earl Matthews, Charles Mitchell and
H. H. Dale.

Kenneth Morrison, clerk of department No. 2 of the superior court, was back on his job again today after a vacation of two weeks. He spent the greater part of his vacation on Mt.
Lowe.

How man "developed from a being,
173 feet high and of ethereal substance, to the six-foot flesh and blood being of today," was reviewed in a lecture read last night before the Theosophical society here by President Porter of the organization. The gaseous beings which the speaker said existed millions of years ago were gradually replaced by denser bodies. Porter said that by 75,025 years B. C. the human life of the planet lived on the continent Atlantis now occupied by the Atlantic ocean. The founders of the Aryan race, of which he said the people of today are an advanced development, were those few beings who escaped destruction at the time Atlantis sank.

Esteban Oyharzabal jr. and Pedro Oyharzabal, of San Juan Capistrano, have announced to the railroad commission that they are prepared to furnish water to residents of the town and have asked that they be declared a public utility. They ask a rate of $5 a customer per month.

Residents of Santa Ana and other
Orange county cities were interested today in the announcement that the annual basket picnic of the Indiana State society would be held next Saturday at Exposition park, Los Angeles. "Take a University car on Fifth street, between Main and Olive, and get off at Thirty-ninth and Vermont," says the announcement.
There will be a program beginning at 2:30 p. m.

Big catches of spotfins, yellowfins and corbina are being made at Huntington Beach, according to reports.
Some bass and halibut also are rewarding the fishermen, the reports said. Long Beach, Playa del Rey, Ocean Park and Santa Monica are among other beaches reporting a good run of fish.

Company F, National Guard of California, was due to arrive in Santa Ana late today from Yosemite, where it has been encamped for more than two weeks. Seventy-six men and three officers of Company F broke camp yesterday and started their twelve-mile hike to the nearest railroad station, where they entrained.
Capt. A. E. Koepsel of Company F is in charge of the troop train, which bears beside the Santa Ana outfit, guardsmen from Los Angeles and Redondo, it is understood. According to word here today, all of the men are feeling fine after the encampment in which more than 2000 men from all the National guards in the state participated.

Orange county Sunday school workers will hold their nineteenth monthly conference tomorrow at the Congregational church, according to the Rev. G. W. Kitzmiller, secretary of the county association. Dr. J. G.
Kennedy will continue his "Studies in Matthew" as the opening feature of the program. Separate conferences also will be held. The conference will begin at 4 p. m. Basket lunch will be served at 6 p. m. and an open conference will be held at 7 p. m. The usual address following the 7 o'clock conference has been eliminated from this mid-summer meeting, which is expected to adjourn at 8 o'clock.

Woodmen of the World from all over Orange county enjoyed the big celebration of the order, held in the woods at Capistrano Saturday evening. Open air initiation was held.
The drill team from the Los Angeles camp was present. A big barbecue was a feature of the gathering and was followed by a booster program and jollification, including dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Yost, of the West End Theater, have returned to Santa Ana from an extended automobile trip through the northern part of the state. They spent considerable time in the Yosemite, at Lake Tahoe and the Santa Cruz mountains. Yost reports that more persons have come to Yosemite than ever before, 5000 campers coming in by machines between July 1 and July 15. At Lake Tahoe the weather is ideal, he says. He traveled more than 1800 miles.

SCOUTS RESCUED AS THEY CLING TO PRECIPICE

Pulled fifty feet by rope in the dark of night to the top of a precipice in Santiago canyon with a yawning slide of several hundred feet below them, Joe Massie and Fred Linsdill, members of Troop I,
La Habra Boy Scouts, were today congratulating themselves on their rescue by Scout Commissioner S. J.
Cornell, of Santa Ana.

Their rescue reveals a thrilling descent, down the side of a steep canyon, by Cornell to where Massie and Linsdill were clinging to the branches of a small tree, and a slow ascent to the top fifty feet above.

Massie and Linsdill, who are in the party of county Boy Scouts encamped in the Santiago canyon, started Saturday afternoon to climb Robber's peak, a mountain about a mile away from the camp.

They lost the trail and believing they could find the way back to their camp, started to slide down the precipice which is not as steep near the top as it is farther below.

Unable to Move
By the time they had slipped fifty feet they were able to catch hold of the trunk of a tree. Unable to move either way, the boys were forced to remain where they were with darkness forming about them.

Several other scouts, who were out on a reconnoitering trip and were returning to camp, heard the frightened shouts of Massie and Linsdill and
D. W. Crawford and D. Eymann Huff.

According to word reaching here today, the boys in camp are anticipating the completion of the swimming pool next Wednesday afternoon. Part of the fence has been erected already. Both D. Eymann Huff, of Orange, and Dr. J. E. Waters, of Anaheim, have furnished the camp with 400 feet of barbed wire.

The Excelsior dairy yesterday presented five gallons of ice cream to the boys and two boxes of oranges were sent by Gowen and Willard,
D. W. Crawford and D. Eymann Huff.

"When I got to the boys they were nearly frozen from the cold wind blowing. They were very scared, but obeyed all my instructions."

BANK SUES MISSING YUBA CITY AUTO MAN

YUBA CITY, July 25.—The First National Bank of Yuba City has filed suit in the superior court here against Ivanhoe J. Davis, auto dealer, who mysteriously disappeared from Marysville several months ago, and at first was believed to have been the victim of foul play.

The suit is to collect on three notes aggregating in value $8028, secured with personal property in Marysville.

signalled to their camp by flashlights from the top of the precipice.
Scout Commissioner Cornell and Scout Executive E. E. Heldt, realizing something was wrong, rushed to the ledge. A rope was tied tightly around Cornell and he was slowly lowered down the precipice while the scouts at the top held the end of the rope.

"I couldn't see five feet in front of me, it was so dark," said Cornell today. "I had to judge where I was by the shouts of Massie and Linsdill. I finally got to them and the scouts above pulled us up to the

BARNETT LIVED MANY MONTHS ON TOAST

"When I tell you I've been relieved of thirty years' suffering you can understand why I'm so strong for Taulac," said William Barnett, of 156 Tehama street, San Francisco, Cal.

"More than thirty years ago my stomach began troubling me. My appetite was so poor I didn't relish a bit of food and I lived on milk and toast and even that caused me terrible cramping pains in my stomach that it almost doubled me up. I would bloat up with gas that pressed into my chest, almost cutting off my breath and causing such pains around my heart that it alarmed me. I was so nervous that I couldn't rest at night, but would roll and toss for hours. I would get up in the morning sore and stiff. I was so weak I had to give up my work as carpenter, and for a month wasn't able to do a thing.

"Finally I started taking Taulac, and there was all the difference in the world in my condition by the time I had finished the very first bottle. I have taken four bottles now and feel like an entirely different person. My appetite is fine, and I eat anything without suffering from indigestion, gas or any other stomach trouble. My breathing is free and easy, I never have a pain of any kind, and my nerves are steady. I sleep like a log at night and get up in the morning full of life and energy and ready for a day's work. I've already picked up twenty pounds in weight and am now enjoying the best of health."

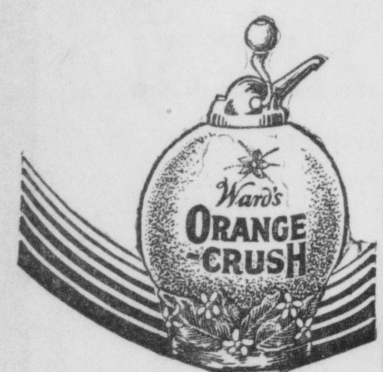

Taulac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley Drug Co., and by leading druggists everywhere.

First came Ward's Orange-Crush. Later came Lemon-Crush and Lime-Crush. All three are carbonated drinks of supreme quality and fruit deliciousness. Enjoy one today.

SHERIFF IN WILL. GRAFT WAR NOT TO USE FORCE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 25.—Governor Len Small today apparently had won his fight to force postponement of his arrest and trial on charges of juggling $10,000,000 in state money until after his term of office expires.

Sheriff Henry Mester of Sangamon county, on whom the shoulders will fall of the duty of serving the warrants, told the United Press he would not use force in efforts to arrest the indicted governor.

Mester's statement brought relief to the state capital, where pictures of armed clashes between state militia called to protect the governor, and a sheriff's deputies, vividly drawn in reports and rumors, has kept the populace on edge.

Will Use Diplomacy
The sheriff told the United Press he would make an honest effort to serve the warrants, if so instructed by the court.

"I may cause the governor some worry," the sheriff said. "I will try to use diplomacy and tact, but I will not use force."

As it will be necessary for force to be used to bring Small into court, as long as he continues his present attitude, it was apparent the situation would rest at that rather indeterminate state until the governor has completed his term of office, or is willing to submit to arrest.

May Ignore Warrant
Even if the sheriff or his deputies should reach the governor personally and read the warrant to him, the executive would probably ignore it and not go to court unless he was forcibly taken. This, the sheriff stated, he would not do.

Sheriff Mester, a huge man, who could probably pick the governor up with one hand and carry him into court, if he wished, said he was sure there would be no trouble.

Judge E. S. Smith is expected to hand down his decision tomorrow, holding Small subject to arrest and order the sheriff to take him into custody. The sheriff will probably notify the governor that he holds a warrant for his arrest, and there the matter will drop, if the governor doesn't change his mind and decide to stand trial.

Burles Guard Governor
In the meantime Small was taking no chances. Burles watched the executive's mansion closely and guarded the governor wherever he went. The governor's advisors were prepared for a coupe.

Reports were current that a battalion of state troops under Colonel A. F. Lorenson would be ordered to Springfield to protect the governor today. If this is done, it is expected to be a demonstration to show the length to which Small and his friends are willing to go to prevent arrest.

"It makes no difference what happens to Len Small, but the governor of the state cannot yield to politicians or money," the executive's friends said.

"There is no power that can restrain me from fulfilling my oath of office," the governor said.

WOMAN IS STABBED IN POLITICAL FEUD

CHICAGO, July 25.—A woman broke the unwritten law of political warfare in the "bloody nineteenth" ward of Chicago.

Mrs. Virginia Esposito, widow of the first victim of the ward's warfare, which has now cost eleven lives, named her assailant as she lay dying from wounds in Columbus hospital. She was the first victim of the feud to ever tell authorities who had made the attack.

It was the unwritten law of gangland that if a man is wounded, not to tell who inflicted the injuries.

Mrs. Esposito was mortally stabbed just after she left a wedding celebration. She was the first woman victim of the feud. She named Mrs. Amelia Panico as the woman who attacked her. Police surrounded Mrs. Panico's home but were unable to find her.

MEXICAN TRIO HELD IN BRUTAL STABBING

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—A long, thin, rust-colored dagger, found by deputy sheriffs, led to the arrest of three Mexicans charged with the probable fatal stabbing of Augustine Patino at Watts early today.

Time was called from his home by three men, just before dawn. One held him while the second stabbed him repeatedly in the back. A third, armed with an automatic, fired three shots into his body as he collapsed.

Manuel Higrete, Yenacio Higrete and Secreto Valero were the men arrested. The dagger was said to have been found in Valero's possession.

BALL GAME RESULTS IN INJURIES TO TWO

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—Sunday's 13 inning ball game between the Solons and Vernon was so widely exciting that two fans momentarily forgot where they were and fell out of the tree from which they were watching the game. Raymond Lannon, eight, broke an arm. Rafael De Los Angeles fractured a hip when he fell.

WHY THEY WENT.
As the Sunday school teacher entered she saw leaving in great haste a little girl and her smaller brother. "Why, Mary, you aren't going away?" she exclaimed in surprise. "Pleathe, Miss Anne, we've got to go," was the distressed reply. "Jimmy thallowed hith collection."

LINER MAURETANIA PERILED BY FLAMES IN ENGLISH HARBOR

SOUTHAMPTON, England, July 25.—A serious fire broke out in the great liner Mauretania here today.

Despite the great efforts of fire fighters the flames spread rapidly. The fire was discovered in a state room on deck "G." The company's fire fighters rushed their apparatus to the deck but the flames quickly got away from them and leaped up around the upper decks.

The Mauretania docked at Southampton Friday and has been preparing since for her regular return journey to New York.

CUBA IS IN THROES OF MONEY SLUMP

HAVANA, July 25.—Signs of Cuba's business and financial depression are evident to the most casual observer. Three big banks, with scores of branches, are closed. The parks of full of idlers. Stores are blazing what they call "bar-gain sales," with goods marked down sometimes as much as 5 per cent from mid-war prices, which is the Spanish merchant's idea of sacrificing profits.

The papers are full of the governmental plans for buying 1,000,000 tons of surplus sugar at a price that will save the producers and dealers from ruin, for re-establishing banking facilities that will relieve the pressing scarcity of currency, for cutting the cost of running the government from $104,000,000 to about $60,000,000 a year and for reducing the cost of living.

Politicians within reaching distance of the political plum basket are dogged day and night by swarms of job hunters. Hundreds of stocky Gallegos, the transient laborers from across the Atlantic, are straggling in from the sugar plantations and walking the streets, waiting for ships to take them back to Spain.

Tenants, with Latin enthusiasm, are organizing "Don't Pay Rent" campaigns until landlords come down to the 1914 scale and the government forces the cost of primary necessities down a couple of hundred per cent.

Out of the nooks and corners where they have lived on the bounty of relatives since the war sent sugar sky high and started a flood of gold into Cuba, they are coming—tapping canes, propelling wheeled chairs, following dogs, being led by children or hopping on crutches—the beggars are coming into town.

ALLEGED FLIGHT OF BANKER AND FAMILY BARED

CHICAGO, July 25.—The inside story of the flight of Warren C. Spurgin, president of the defunct Michigan Avenue Trust company, previous to the discovery of more than $1,000,000 shortage in the bank's accounts, was revealed to the United Press today by the fiancée of Vivian Spurgin, daughter of the banker.

Herman Byler, employed by the American Discount company, a concern which Spurgin headed along with his bank, gave the first clew as to the direction of the banker's flight.

Prepare For Flight.
Byler said he was called to the Spurgin home a week ago Saturday. "The home was in confusion," Byler said. "Every one was flying around, packing trunks and covering the furniture and pictures. I was asked to take Mrs. Spurgin's car to the garage and have it prepared for a long trip."

Vivian told him the previous night her father had come home and made a clean breast of the entire affair to his family, Byler said. Immediately after making the confession, Spurgin started his flight. He had $50,000 in cash when he fled.

"Packing was completed Saturday and Sunday," Byler continued. "The home was arranged for a long absence. Monday morning Mrs. Spurgin drew $301 from the bank—all the money she had—and she and Vivian started their flight."

Letters From Detroit
Byler later had two letters from Detroit, where the automobile which Mrs. Spurgin had driven, was located in a garage. Vivian said she and her mother were going to have to look for work. She told of staying at a rooming house, but when authorities went to the place they found that the two women had again fled.

Detectives were of the opinion that Vivian and her mother had crossed the Canadian line to join Spurgin and that the whole family might may a try for Europe.

Wireless flushes were sent to all vessels to watch for the missing banker.

MULLICANE SLAYING CASE AGAIN DELAYED

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—The Eric Mullicane murder trial, scheduled to open in Superior Judge Houser's court today, was this morning again postponed.

The court will be unable to open the Mullicane case, it was announced, until the present trial of Edith Lundberg, charged with killing her sweetheart, Lee F. Worden, is concluded.

The Lundberg trial has taken more time than originally estimated, due to the introduction of additional testimony of the Lundberg-Worden "death-romance." It will probably be concluded by the middle of the week.

HOOVER REFUSES TO AID RUSSIANS WHILE AMERICANS ARE HELD

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Secretary Hoover today reiterated the attitude of this government toward relief for Russia when in a message to Maxim Gorky at Petrograd he pointed out that the United States could not extend relief while Americans were held prisoner by the Soviet government.

Hoover, as chairman of the American Relief association, pointed out that the relief association several months ago indicated its willingness to give relief.

CAL. BOY VICTIM IN BRUTAL MURDER CASE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 25.—An inquest was to be held here today over the body of Harry Moll, 13, who was murdered sometime Saturday night or Sunday by being beaten with an iron bar. The body was found in an empty warehouse here late yesterday. No motive for the murder was known.

The boy, who was the son of W. E. Moll, of San Francisco, was with his parents at the municipal campground where they had stopped while making an overland trip in an auto.

POSSE ON TRAIL OF DRY AGENT'S SLAYERS

JACKSON, Ky., July 25.—A sheriff's posse of thirty men led by bloodhounds, scoured the hills of Brecht and Knox counties today for six men who ambushed a party of prohibition raiders Saturday, killing one man and a boy, and seriously wounding another.

According to officials at Jackson, two of the men who executed the ambush are known and their arrest was momentarily expected.

$100,000 SOUGHT FOR 'PEACE PORTAL'

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Sam Hill, multi-millionaire good roads enthusiast of Washington and Oregon, wants congress to appropriate $100,000 towards defraying the cost of a celebration commemorating 100 years of peace between the United States and Great Britain.

The Dominion of Canada is to be asked for a similar sum, and the celebration is to be held some time next fall, when a "peace portal" will be formally dedicated on the boundary line between Washington and British Columbia at Blaine, Wash.

Hill wants the money turned over to the Pacific Highway association of Washington.

Hill has been promoting the portal celebration for the past two years and has carried the message of the memorial across seas. He expects to assemble the representatives of the nations of the world at Blaine, and the friends of disarmament in the Northwest have seized on the purpose of the celebration as a striking argument in favor of the naval holiday.

BANKER IS HOST TO FRIENDS AT BEACH

Newport and Balboa catered to an unusually large crowd over the weekend, and thousands of "inland folks" were today remembering with pleasure a few hours or the day or two spent in happy recreation on beach and bay.

One of the jolliest parties was that of General M. H. Sherman, Los Angeles and Van Nuys banker and railroad builder, who was host to a party of seventy of his friends at Balboa Saturday.

They came in Sherman's private car, via the Pacific Electric and spent the day boat-riding about the bay, banqueting and dancing and indulged in the other pleasure afforded there, including a "dip" in the briny. All were enthusiastic over the beach resort and the possibilities of the harbor. Among those in the distinguished party were Former General Manager Jameson of the Banning company; a son and daughter of Harry Chandler of the Los Angeles Times, General Schofield, New York railroad man, Major Patton of the Examiner, and a large number of Van Nuys folk, including the president of the First National bank and the newspaper editor.

The Cauldron club of Pasadena, to the number of fifty, formed another happy week-end party. They chartered the Margaret C. and enjoyed a cruise to Catalina, leaving Saturday afternoon and returning to Balboa last night.

It is reported that Douglas Fairbanks and his company are still engaged in taking scenes on the upper bay and the "set" including two or three foot scenes with muzzle-loading cannon "everything, has been watched with interest by autoists on the road to the Palisades about the upper bay. Fairbanks, it is said, is taking these scenes for "The Three Musketeers," with Fred Niblo as director.

BOYS' SCHOOL TO USE BIBLE AS TEXT-BOOK

STONE BROOK, N. Y., July 25.—Protests against what was described as the "infidel and revolutionary philosophy of American colleges," voiced at the victorious life conference of churches here yesterday, was followed by announcement that the Stoney Brook Presbyterian Assembly would establish next year a Christian school for boys in which the Bible would be used as a text-book.

GROWERS READY TO START WITH BEET HARVEST

Growers of beets for the Santa Ana, Southern California and Holly sugar factories in Orange county, today were making plans to start harvesting this year's crop Wednesday of this week, following announcement that the plants at Huntington Beach and Dyer would start the season's grind next Monday of next week. Leading will start Friday.

The plant of the Southern California company on South Main will not operate this season, farmers growing beets for that factory having been directed to deliver their produce to one of the other two mills. All three are owned by the Holly Sugar corporation.

Acreage Decreases

It is estimated that the beet tonnage of the county will be equal to that of last year, although the acreage this season is five or six thousand acres short of what it was last season.

The beets are in good condition and indications point to heavier yields per acre than last season. The increased yield will make the county tonnage equal to that of last year when the acreage was larger.

The labor situation is said to be easy and giving little or no concern to factory managers or farmers.

Costs Less

Contracts for topping being made at figures showing a decline of about 33 1-3 per cent as compared with last year. Today's prices are 36 cents a ton as against $1.20 last season. Farm labor is working on a wage schedule 20 per cent less than was paid last season, it is estimated.

Wage reductions in factories average of about 17 1/2 per cent, it was said, the decrease being a little less for skilled than for unskilled employees.

PRINCE'S GUESTS ARE SEARCHED BY POLICE

PARIS, July 25.—Guests to an ultra-fashionable function in the mansion of Prince Philippe, duke of Orleans, pretender to the French throne, were amazed to be held up on leaving by a squad of private police who cautiously but firmly insisted on searching them.

"During 10 years I estimate having lost more than 250,000 francs worth of property by the souvenir-hunting craze of otherwise honest guests," said the duke in explanation.

Other society entertainers are following suit.

CLEARANCE NOTE IS FORGOTTEN BY MOTHER AND BOYS ARRESTED

Because their mother forgot to give them a note stating that she knew where they had gone and for what purpose, Paul and Manuel Strite, of San Diego, aged 13 and 16, respectively, were arrested here early this morning as runaways.

Deputy Sheriff Herman J. Zabel telephoned to the mother of the boys and learned that they were newsboys who make a week-end trip to Los Angeles to sell papers.

The mother explained that the boys were arrested once before as runaways and that to guard against a repetition of this situation she made it a point to give them a note, but she forgot it when they left home last Friday night.

The two boys were released as soon as their mother offered this explanation. They stated that they depend on traveling motorists for free rides between San Diego and Los Angeles, and that they have never paid a cent for transportation.

BEATS DIVING GIRL ONCE HELD IN S. A.

Saved from threatening lynchers, Guy Musser, professional diver of Venice, today faced a charge of battery preferred of his wife, Mrs. Amelia Florence Musser, also a diver, who less than two years ago, pleaded guilty before Superior Judge Williams of Santa Ana, to a charge of bigamy.

"Lynch him, lynch him," was the bitter cry of a quickly gathered crowd which discovered Musser in altercation with his wife and fighting with his father-in-law, Captain Henry Behrens, back of the Venice bathhouse, last night.

He was rescued by three policemen and on his own plea lodged in the Venice city jail, while Mrs. Musser and her father were treated for minor bruises and abrasions resulting from the fracas.

Under the terms of Judge Williams' sentence, Mrs. Musser was put on probation in the True Love home in Los Angeles for a year following her 1919. Carter was given an illegitimate marriage here with John Carter of San Francisco in September, 1919. Carter was given an indeterminate sentence, not to exceed ten years in San Quentin, when he pleaded guilty.

Less than a year has passed since the expiration of Mrs. Musser's probationary period. She was an exhibition diver before her marriage to Musser, while he worked as a professional deep sea diver for her father, Captain Behrens.

The injured woman was brought to Santa Ana by H. T. Kiser, the first motorist to arrive on the scene of the accident. After receiving first aid treatment here she returned to her home at Long Beach.

Motorcycle Officer Frank Stewart investigated and made a report of the accident.

TALBERT MAN'S CAR HITS MEXICAN CYCLISTS

Robert Wardlow of Talbert, today reported to the sheriff's office that while driving his automobile a half mile south of the cemetery last night he struck two Mexicans who were riding bicycles. Both were severely bruised and their bicycles were smashed.

According to Wardlow, neither of the Mexicans had a light on his bicycle and he lights from a car coming from the opposite direction partially blinded him. He says he did not see the cyclists until he was upon them and that the accident was unavoidable.

Wardlow picked up the two Mexicans and took them to their homes. He then summoned a physician who dressed their wounds. Wardlow had the doctor visit the two men again this morning and said that he would pay the bill.

ALLEGED FORGER IN PLEA FOR LENIENCY

Walter Hill, 64, appeared before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, pleaded guilty to an information charging him with forgery and made application for probation. Judge Williams, for hearing the application and pronouncement of judgment.

Today received from the department of justice, bureau of criminal identification, at Leavenworth, Kans., Hill's former prison record. This record was established by fingerprints sent to the bureau by Zabel.

According to the Leavenworth bureau, Hill, under the alias of C. E. Wilson, served a sentence at San Quentin for first degree burglary. He was received at the penitentiary February 10, 1900.

Hill forged the name of C. C. Chandler, proprietor of the Main Shoe Hospital, to several checks and cashed them at different business houses in Santa Ana. He was arrested in Redding about three weeks ago after eluding the authorities for two months.

BAY CITY YACHT CLUB FLAGSHIP TAKES FIRE

SANTA BARBARA, July 25.—The Fulton G., flagship of the Corinthian yacht club of San Francisco, burst into flames here when the yacht's steward attempted to replenish the gasoline tank without extinguishing the sidelights.

Capt. Harry Madden, sailing master, and Mrs. Oliver Bolger, a guest, leaped into the sea, their clothing afire, and were saved from serious burns. They were rescued later.

Those aboard the yacht, which is headed north, are Capt. A. Roussin, skipper; Thomas and Oliver Bolger and their wives; Joe Martin, the caretaker, and two women friends of the owners.

The damage to the yacht was slight.

There are times when the almighty dollar will not go as far as a little politeness.

PASTOR'S AUTO HIT; DRY FINE FOR NAVY MAN

For transporting liquor in violation of a county ordinance, S. W. Callaway of the Naval Aviation corps, stationed at San Diego, today paid a fine of $50, assessed by Justice of the Peace Cox.

Callaway was arrested late yesterday afternoon by Motorcycle Officer Frank Stewart following an accident on the state highway near Tustin. His car collided with a machine driven by the Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian church. Both cars were slightly damaged and the Rev. Mr. Porter received a cut on one hand.

Callaway admitted in court this morning that he had ten gallons of wine in his car. Had it not been for the fact that one demijohn was broken in the accident, he might have escaped arrest. The tell-tale wine leaked out of the car and soaked the highway.

Finds Other Demijohns

The Rev. Mr. Porter investigated and found several other demijohns packed in Callaway's machine. Officer Stewart was summoned and Callaway was brought to the county jail. The liquor which he had in his car was confiscated by the authorities.

Callaway said that he got the wine in Hollywood yesterday, and that he was "accommodating a friend" in transporting it to San Diego.

"Well, didn't you know it was a violation of the law to transport liquor?" asked Judge Cox.

"Yes, I did, your honor, but I took a chance on it," was the answer.

LONG BEACH GIRL HURT AS AUTOS CRASH

Miss Dora C. Black, 1600 East Fourth street, Long Beach, was confined at her home today with bruises about her head and spine and a laceration of her left hand, the result of an automobile accident at Tustin last Saturday evening.

Miss Black was riding in a Ford sedan, driven by her mother, Mrs. Sue Black. They were traveling west on Main street, Tustin, when their car was struck by a machine driven by George Monberg, 1143 Iowa avenue, Hollywood, who was traveling north on the state highway.

Monberg's car struck the left front wheel of Mrs. Black's car, causing it to turn over into the ditch. The machine was badly damaged. Mrs. Black escaped with slight bruises.

The injured woman was brought to Santa Ana by H. T. Kiser, the first motorist to arrive on the scene of the accident. After receiving first aid treatment here she returned to her home at Long Beach.

Motorcycle Officer Frank Stewart investigated and made a report of the accident.

CALL FOR BIDS ON NEW CHURCH, PLAN

The building committee in charge of the erection of a new $100,000 Catholic church will meet at the rectory tomorrow night to issue a call for bids for the structure.

Tomorrow is the feast day of St. Ann, mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary and patron saint of the city of Santa Ana, (Saint Ann).

The new church will bear the name of St. Ann's, instead of St. Joseph's, the present title—as being more appropriate for this city.

St. Ann's church will be placed upon the new site, a block of ground recently purchased two blocks north of the present location. It will front Lacy street.

Eventually the entire church plant, consisting of rectory and school buildings, will be removed to the new site.

Offered with truck transportation of their farm products.

The Automobile Club of Southern California will push an immediate investigation, according to Field Secretary Carl E. McStay.

Feeling between Japanese and whites is said to run high in the Clifton-White point district. Trouble over possible forcible attempts to open the road is feared.

TINY UPHEAVAL IN PLAY CAST DUE TO MAGIC OF MOON?

Laguna Actors Bar Public From Rehearsals of Pageant

'PRESENCE IRRITATION'

Say Mystic Atmosphere May Have Worked Spell On Men, Women

The first tiny upheaval has occurred among the company of actors at Laguna who are rehearsing the Peace Pipe pageant.

Such little explosions are inevitable, say those who know how sensitive are the members of organizations who strive to realize perfection in the domain of the artistic.

It may be that the rays of the forthcoming August full moon have already worked their magic upon the actors and actresses.

Again, there is a possibility that the play itself, with its mystic atmosphere, its poetry, has thoroughly enthralled those who will stage it.

At any rate, a pronouncement has gone forth at aesthetic Laguna to the effect that "the public is kindly requested to absent itself from rehearsals as their presence is an irritation in these first days of work."

Keen Disappointment.

The notice appeared in The Laguna Life.

Wherefore, there is disappointment among the residents of the resort, as well as among the hundreds of summer visitors.

In the meantime, J. J. Frazee, author and director of the pageant, continues hard at work, drilling his company of men and women who will enact it.

Those who have been so fortunate as to see scenes of the play rehearsed are impressed with the veil of poetry that has been interwoven in its structure.

The very fact that it was decided to give the performances during the week of the full moon in August is declared to indicate a wealth of extremely delicate aesthetic feeling on the part of those sponsoring the production.

"Thing of Beauty."

It is remembered that out of the art world came such admittedly beautiful things as "pink tulips of curiosity," and "white tulips of fulfillment," and white carnations, the latter symbolizing, as it were, the theory that "a thing of beauty is a joy forever."

So, it is asked, may it not be entirely possible that at Laguna Beach there is being born, in the Peace Pipe pageant, some new thing of loveliness, some spark of imagination, never to be forgotten?

As to the pageant, "pictorially and intellectually its vast reach is into the invisible realms of spiritual

FOUR ORANGE COUNTY ANGLERS CATCH 250 POUNDS OF ALBACORE

Two hundred fifty pounds of albacore was the "catch" yesterday of four Orange county men in the launch "Crest" out of Balboa.

Eleven of the big beauties were taken in a school off the Newport coast, each weighing in the neighborhood of twenty-three pounds, and apportioned among members of The Register's news staff, who pronounced the fish—and the fishermen—good.

Those in the party were John Cubbon of Santa Ana, owner of the Crest; his son, William Cubbon, of Balboa; Clarence Skiles and Eddie Markovitch.

Seidel's market assumed the task of slicing up the big fish and keeping it on ice until the frying pan was ready.

RICH KIN LEAVE WOMAN TO OWN LIFE FIGHT?

Mrs. Campbell Held In Balboa Murder Spends Time Reading Fiction

Apparently assuming an attitude of indifference toward her approaching trial for the murder of her husband, Mrs. Mary Campbell, who is slated to come before the justice court for her preliminary examination August 3, is whiling away the hours by reading light fiction and magazines.

Frequently she appears at the bar window of her cell and gazes out into the street. She has seen no one lately besides the jail matron. And, according to Mrs. B. A. Swanwick, deputy sheriff, she gets less mail than any other prisoner confined in the jail.

Attorney Clyde Bishop stated today that he has practically withdrawn as counsel for the defense. He said that neither Mrs. Campbell nor any of her relatives had come to terms with him and that he does not propose to act as her attorney without an understanding.

It is rumored that Mrs. Campbell is not getting the financial support that was expected from her reputed millionaire son-in-law, A. G. Wilkes, oil promoter of San Francisco. Neither Wilkes nor his wife have come to Santa Ana to see her.

Gets Only Two Letters

Mrs. Swanwick says that Mrs. Campbell has not received more than two letters from San Francisco since she came soon after her arrest, June 9. It is known, however, that Wilkes, her son-in-law, sent a representative here from the bay city to interview Mrs. Campbell.

Just what transpired between Mrs. Campbell and the visitor is a matter of conjecture. It is intimated that there are strained relations between the prisoner and her son-in-law and daughter, inasmuch as neither have shown enough concern over her situation to make a personal call.

Shortly after Mrs. Campbell's arrest, Clyde Bishop announced that he had been retained as the woman's counsel. Guy Eddie also was mentioned, and he did, as a matter of fact, appear in the justice court July 6, when Mrs. Campbell was brought in for an examination. Both Bishop and Eddie requested a continuance and preliminary was reset for August 3.

Mrs. Campbell appeared on the verge of a nervous collapse when she was arraigned and again when her examination was continued. She said little or nothing and had to be supported by the jail matron and a deputy sheriff as she walked to the courthouse and back again to the jail.

Loses Nervousness

According to the jail matron, Mrs. Campbell still is morose and gloomy at times, but not as nervous as she was during the early stages of her incarceration.

Mrs. Campbell has a fairly good appetite now though she ate little or nothing for a day or two after her arrest. The matron brought

AUTOMOBILE DEALERS ENJOY THEMSELVES AT COUNTRY CLUB JINKS

"When will we have another?" This, as automobile men and their friends met on the streets today, was their common salutation, following the dealers' high jinks Saturday night at the Orange County Country club.

The affair was all that had been expected of it, and those who attended enjoyed themselves to the fullest, recklessly abandoning the conventions of the society parlors. The occasion took the automobile men back to the days when they were youngsters and untrammelled by the restrictions that business imposes upon men in later life.

A group of special entertainers from Los Angeles danced and sang for the edification of the dealers, and numerous games were played. The evening was one full of real amusement.

KIWANIANS TO BE BUSY ON WEDNESDAY

Kiwanians will be busy next Wednesday.

With an old country picnic next Wednesday evening at Laguna, to take the place of the noon meeting here, and a joint meeting of the Santa Ana, Fullerton and Anaheim clubs at Fullerton next Wednesday noon, the members who attend both meetings will be fairly active during the day.

It is expected twenty-five or thirty Santa Anans will go to Fullerton. They will gather at 302 Spurgeon street at 11:45 a. m. and will go to Fullerton in a body.

District Governor Leslie B. Henry, of Pasadena, will give a resume of the Kiwanis international convention held recently at Cleveland. Members are anticipating his address with the greatest interest.

The program for the country picnic of the Santa Ana club at Laguna promises to be such as to make the evening one of rare enjoyment.

White collars and "boiled shirts" will be taboo and welcome to the man who presents himself in such array.

Bandana handkerchiefs will be in order as neck dress and patched trousers will be strictly in style. It is expected that there will be a large number of "rubes" in the bunch.

Women and kiddies also are to participate in the affair. It is to be one of the three or four outing or open meetings in each year that the club has agreed to.

Calico dresses and long tresses will be the "big thing" for the women, and this will be one time when the wife or daughter may not say "I cannot go, I haven't anything to wear." Any old thing will do, the more ragged the better.

Basket lunches will be in order and chicken is recommended for each basket. Arrangements have been made for the party to spread lunches under the arbor near the drug store, and coffee and ice cream will be served at 25 cents a person.

The crowd is expected to be there by 6 o'clock. Those who have no conveyance will be taken care of if they will report to Secretary Herbert O. Davis, 302 Spurgeon street, phone 13.

The entertainment program will be given at the dance pavilion and will start at 7:30 o'clock. The program committee has arranged a number of stunts.

Following this there will be dancing for those of the Kiwanis party who care thus to enjoy themselves.

IS POWDER PUFF USE FRAUGHT WITH PERIL?

Not at All Say Medicos Here, Laughing Quaker City Man To Scorn

BY ELEANOR ELLIOTT

It is said that it requires a high degree of courage on the part of a soldier to face the powder.

Now the question arises as to whether an equal amount of courage is to be required of woman when she attempts to powder her face.

For Dr. Herbert M. Goddard, a prominent Philadelphia physician, has gone on record as asserting that the use of the supposedly innocuous powder puff is fraught with untold dangers.

"Seventy-five per cent of American women are today suffering from various degrees of irritation of the septum, that cartilaginous structure which separates the nostrils," says the eminent medico. "And it is all induced by the copious use of powder, the tiny particles of which fly up the nose and cause the irritation."

But in Santa Ana, the doctor would find a chance for an argument, for Santa Ana physicians laugh his theories to scorn.

"Rather Far-Fetched"

"I am by no means an authority on nasal diseases, and should not deliver an opinion, perhaps," today stated Dr. H. E. Zaiser of the Orange County Hospital. "I shall let the specialists speak from a scientific standpoint and merely say as a physician, that the whole statement seems rather far-fetched, and I don't believe there is a particle of danger attached to the use of powder, so far as diseases of the respiratory organs are concerned."

Dr. Arthur H. Domann, health officer of Orange county, was even more emphatic in his statements. "Don't believe it," he said firmly. "The powder in itself is quite harmless, and as for the particles that might enter the nasal passages, they would be in far too minute quantities to set up any irritation even were any to pass the guard set up by the cilia."

And when Dr. John I. Clark, city health officer, was asked for his opinion, he laughed.

"Absolutely Absurd"

"The idea is absolutely absurd," Dr. Clark said. "Ordinary talcum and face powders, which women use, are inert. They do not possess the irritating qualities of the dust of the city streets and by no stretching of my imagination can I see where they would prove dangerous or even harmful to women. Were the little particles to lodge in the nasal passages, ample provision has been made by nature in the form of nasal secretions to wash the offending particles out."

And then came Dr. G. M. Tralle, one of the specialists of the city, whose work deals directly with nasal trouble as women, and if the use of powder is largely responsible for irritation of the nasal cavities, would men be willing to admit that they are addicted to the constant use of cosmetics?"

Powdering Continues

And so, standing in unbroken phalanx against the Philadelphia physician, representative members of the medical profession in this section flourish their scalpels in derision of his views and Milady continues to powder her nose with impunity whenever the still, small voice tells her it is getting shifty.

FARM LABOR BODY TO DECIDE ON OFFICE

The executive committee of the board of directors of the Orange County Farm Labor association was scheduled to meet this afternoon at the office of the Orange county farm bureau to complete arrangements for opening an employment bureau here. It was expected that the committee would make definite choice of a location for the agency.

Men and firms who hire large numbers of men organized the association for the purpose of placing them in direct touch with sources of supply.

J. F. Jackson, an experienced employment bureau man, has been appointed director.

Laborers will be placed without charge to them, the employers assuming all the expense of operating the agency. It is expected that institution of the service will eliminate difficulties of the employers in securing help when they need it.

The executive committee is composed of D. Eymann Huff, C. V. Newman and W. J. Cheney.

Two others were bitten on their hands and both suffered intensely with the swelling incident to the sting.

BOYS GET BLAME AS DYNAMITE AND ALARM CLOCK STOLEN HERE

Harvey Garber, proprietor of Garber's brick yard, Hickey and Olive streets, today reported to the police department that some one entered his office late last night and stole a stick of dynamite, a box of lead pencils, a box of rubber bands and an alarm clock.

All of these articles were found in a cluster of weeds a short distance from the office by a workman employed at the brickyard. Garber says that he suspects one or more boys of the burglary. The office was entered through a window.

A week ago a committee of citizens living in the vicinity of the brickyard appeared before the city council and declared the brickyard to be a public nuisance. They asked that the city take some action toward having it removed from its present location.

Garber said that he was not of the opinion that the robbery had any connection with spite work, it appearing more like the prank of a school boy.

SUPERVISORS OF 3 COUNTIES IN FIGHT TO WIN CONTROL OF TRUCKING

Battle To Save Highways Is Being Waged At Riverside Meet

SANITARIUM DISCUSSED

Water Conservation Topic Is Also Brought Before Gathering

Three subjects of prime importance were being considered at a joint meeting this afternoon of the boards of supervisors of Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

These subjects were: Uniform county ordinances for the control of trucking; a tri-counties sanitarium for the treatment of tubercular patients; conservation of waters of the Santa Ana river.

The meeting was being held at Riverside, where the supervisors of the three counties gathered at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Each board of supervisors has been struggling with its traffic problem. Each had hoped that the last legislature would pass a state-wide law that would place trucking under control, so that the smashing up of paved roads by heavy traffic might be brought to an end.

However, the legislature failed to pass a law. The automobile associations are accused of having stood in with the trucking interests for a load limit so ridiculously high that the state highway commission and boards of supervisors of the state went to bat against it. The legislature got to mulling on the subject, and adjourned without doing anything to remedy the situation.

This threw the handling of its traffic problem upon each individual county. One county might think a load limit of 24,000 pounds about right, and a county adjoining might have an ordinance with a load limit of 12,000 pounds.

In order that the three counties might devise a uniform weight and speed ordinance and plan for uniform enforcement, the supervisors of the three counties were to discuss the road problem this afternoon.

Discuss Sanitarium

The question of a sanitarium for tubercular patients from the three counties is not a new subject. A similar conference was held a year ago. At that time, a plan of action was decided upon, but was abandoned because one of the counties under its budget had not arranged to finance its share of the work.

It is proposed that the sanitarium be built and operated jointly by the three counties.

HARDY PIONEERS ON TRAIL ONCE AGAIN

Western history repeated itself at Fullerton today with the departure of two hardy pioneers on a wagon expedition in search of adventure and new land.

Isaiah Hoover, seventy-one years of age, and his partner, Edward La Pier, both residents of Fullerton, since early days, left there this morning in two covered wagons, drawn by a pair of horses, on a trip toward the Oregon line, which they said would take a year to accomplish.

Guns and fishing tackle form an important part of their equipment, as they intend to live off the land during their days on the trail.

Adventure will be the first quest of these two aged comrades, but practical sense inherited from family stock that roamed the prairies with Buffalo Bill and other famous Western trail-makers will stand them in good stead should the chance to acquire new land be offered.

If such land is not to be found in Northern California, the two men will push through into Oregon, perhaps as far north as Washington.

Neither of the men is new to camp or trail. Both came into the West via the wagon trail and have vivid memories of such events as the massacre at White Rock, Kan., in July, 1864, when fourteen families were murdered by the Cheyennes and Arapahoes, led, it is declared, by white renegades, deserters from the army.

Though Hoover has completed the proverbial life cycle of three-score-and-ten allotted to man, and La Pier is his junior only by a few years, there is no doubt in the minds of these men that they can master the hazards of the new trail which they are taking so late in life.

La Pier is minus a leg, which he lost since coming to Fullerton some fourteen years ago, but he considers its lack no handicap for the year of separation—at least partial separation—from civilization that is before him.

in size, but are mostly medium or quite large. The legs are long, the front pair especially. It is with their front legs that they grasp their prey.

"The head is very small and the antennae are three jointed. The beak is short, stout, usually curved, three jointed and very sharp. Because of its predaceous habits, the bug is considered beneficial. It has been known to bite people frequently and its bite is worse than the sting of a bee or wasp.

"It is sometimes known as the pirate bug, sometimes as the China bedbug and sometimes as the bedbug hunter. It has a number of other nicknames.

SUPERVISORS STRIVE TO CONTROL TRUCKS

vation of the waters of the Santa Ana river is no new thing. Through the Tri-County Reformation committee and the Water Conservation committee of the three counties the matter has been studied for the past fourteen years, and a good deal of practical work has been done. The most successful activity of the tri-counties has been the spreading of surplus waters of the Santa Ana river on a debris cone at the base of the San Bernardino mountains.

Conservation District
Two years ago the legislature passed a law under which it was believed that a conservation district of the three counties could be organized. Hitherto, organization has been informal, and funds were collected through various water companies in a free will way. However, the law did not prove popular with some of the organizations, and steps toward the organization of the district were abandoned.

It was then proposed that each of the three counties through its board of supervisors subscribe to a fund to be used in conservation of flood waters of the Santa Ana river. The district attorneys for the three counties, however, ruled that the counties had no right under the law to subscribe to such a fund as was proposed. It is understood that the last legislature passed a law that will legalize a subscription by county to a fund for the work proposed.

Just what would develop at today's meeting at Riverside was not forecast. It is probable that some cooperative tri-counties fund will be suggested and established. Whether that fund would be on a basis of $10,000, or more or less, from each county was to be determined today.

Arrangements had been made for attendance by all of the supervisors of Orange county, Supervisors H. A. Wassum of Tustin and N. T. Edwards of Orange, with District Attorney Nelson and Dr. Harry E. Zaiser superintendent of the Orange County hospital, and T. E. Stephenson of The Register left for Riverside at 11 o'clock this morning, for the meeting. Supervisors S. H. Finley, T. B. Talbert and William Schumacher are in the mountains on camping trips, and each, before he left, said that he would drive from his camp to Riverside for today's meeting.

SUIT OVER TRACTOR WILL BE HEARD HERE

Postponed about two weeks ago because of the illness of the principal witness for the plaintiff, a civil action brought by J. F. McKinney against J. E. Walter and company or Anaheim is scheduled to come up in department No. 2 of the superior court here tomorrow.

McKinney alleges that February 2, 1921, he bought tractor and a plow for his ranch near Bolsa, paying $1000 for the two implements. The plaintiff declares that the tractor was delivered minus several extra parts and a set of tools and that he never did receive the plow. The allegations are denied by the defendant company.

conflict of those two supreme fundamentals of life—the primal passions of love and hate—light and darkness," to quote Miss Virginia Calhoun, well known actress of the legitimate stage and star of the forthcoming play.

There are no big melodramatic scenes in the pageant, Miss Calhoun points out, "yet the Redmen present all there is to be found perhaps of the tragedy in their lives of hate and revenge."

"This is a triumph of art itself," Miss Calhoun says, enthusiastically, "but especially when the love principle is convincingly the victor."

KIN FORESAKE WOMAN HELD IN DEATH CASE?

Mrs. Campbell's breakfast to her one morning about a week after she had been lodged in jail.

"Do you care for coffee?" asked the matron.

"Not with my breakfast," said Mrs. Campbell, "I'll take it a bit later."

"This is not a hotel," said the matron. "You'll have to take your coffee now if you get it at all."

Mrs. Campbell then became accustomed to drinking coffee at the time it was served other prisoners. The prisoner shot her husband, Jess V. Campbell, at their home in Balboa during a jealous quarrel. He died on the way to a hospital in this city.

Mrs. Campbell accused her husband of being too familiar with other women, particularly a woman now in Arkansas.

A comedy will be put on with the Studebaker show. Come and spend the evening. Two shows, 7:30 p. m. and 9:15 p. m. Read Brown & Bowles' ad.

BIBLE STUDENTS' LECTURER HAS GOOD HEARING

The Destined Rulers of the World, for Millions Now Living Will Never Die, was the topic chosen by W. R. Siewert, of Pasadena, for discussion Sunday morning at 11 a. m. at Lawrence Hall, 402 West Fourth St.

While Mr. Siewert admitted that this topic may be viewed from two standpoints, namely God's and man's, he discussed it, he said, "only from God's or the Bible viewpoint, because very soon man's ways and arrangements will have to give way to God's kingdom which shall soon be established for the blessing of all the families of the earth."—Gen. 12:3

The speaker claimed that scripturally "the Rulers of the World, whose government shall abide forever are of God's own appointment"—see Daniel 7:13, 14, 27. He said: "Man originally was created perfect, a king over the earth, and all the animal kingdom. Through disobedience he lost that dominion and his right to perfect human life. Jesus at his first advent, gave the ransom price for Adam, namely, His perfect human life, and by so doing, He redeemed man and his lost dominion, and thereby gained the right to reign over the earth as its King in Adam's stead.

"This right he will exercise for one thousand years, for the purpose of uplifting, blessing, and completely restoring to perfection, mental, moral and physical, all the willing and obedient, not only of the living, at the time of the establishment of His righteous rule, but also of the dead millions, who have never had a full and fair trial for life."

Therefore, Mr. Siewert claimed, that "since Bible chronology plainly marks the time for Christ's Kingdom to be inaugurated as being in the next few years, there are many people now living, who, if they have the necessary traits of character—namely, meekness, humility, and above all, honesty of heart—need never die. These will be given the privilege of escaping the grim spectre death, and of coming under the rule of the New King—Him for whom the world is longing, and for whom the Christian world has been praying 'Thy kingdom come, thy will be done ON EARTH, as it is done in Heaven.' Christ, as King, will have joint-heirs, as is mentioned in Romans 8:17."

Mr. Siewert also touched upon the Bible requirements for this exalted position:

"Christ and the church will reign until every enemy of righteousness has been subdued, and all willful evildoers destroyed. Then all the living will again be sons of God. To these, restored to Divine sonship, will be given the original dominion which at the first was given Father Adam. Man having had full experience with sin, and its accompanying evils, will thereafter gladly render voluntary obedience to Jehovah. The human family will never again have to forfeit either life or dominion, but will be destined rulers over this whole perfected earth, throughout the ages to come. Then it will be theirs to enjoy complete and perfect LIFE, LIBERTY and HAPPINESS."

SETS POTATO DAY FOR NEXT THURSDAY

Whether there will be a shortage of potatoes next year, with consequent high prices, will depend largely upon the success of potato day, Thursday of this week, according to statements of farmers in the San Fernando and San Gabriel valleys.

The crop of this season is not moving rapidly and prices are low, as compared with the cost of production, they say. Many growers in these valleys and other potato growing sections have declared their intention to quit planting fall crops. It is said serious losses have already been sustained, by reason of high freight rates preventing shipping at a profit under prices being paid.

Governor William Stephens has issued a proclamation declaring Thursday potato day and urging that everyone who can buy a sack of potatoes.

Hotels, restaurants, jobbers and retailers, it is stated, have agreed to boost the sale of tubers.

TO HEAR SEER HELD ON WOMAN'S 'HUNCH'

Charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, Marcelle Cook, clairvoyant, formerly of Anaheim, will be brought before Justice of the Peace Howard at Anaheim tomorrow for a preliminary hearing.

Cook is alleged to have agreed to find a wife for a Nebraska man who was visiting Anaheim more than a year ago, and to get some gold mine stock for the same man. According to the Nebraskan, Cook failed to make good.

The defendant was arrested about a month ago at San Diego by Deputy Sheriff Joe Fowler. He was taken on information furnished the district attorney's office by Mrs. Henry Y. Cohen, who appeared in the justice court here to press a statutory charge against her husband.

Mrs. Cohen had a "hunch" that the authorities were looking for Cook. She said that her husband and Cook operated together for awhile, both claiming to be clairvoyants.

FEAR CHARLES TO TRY DASH FOR THRONE

VIENNA, July 25.—The rumored intention of former Emperor Charles of Austria to make another dash for the throne has caused the authorities to order a vigilant watch along the Danube and on the Swiss frontier, although officials do not appear to be concerned, pointing out that the Swiss authorities are keeping a close guard on the former Emperor at his castle in Hertenstein, near Lucerne.

Credit

"Credit is like a looking-glass, which, when once sullied by a breath, may be wiped clear again; but if once cracked can never be repaired."

CREDIT is the best asset any person can have. It should be guarded and cultivated with utmost care. The very idea of Credit implies a foundation of character, and is more to be desired than mere wealth.

It is usually not enough simply to have money in the bank. That of itself tells nothing beyond the bare fact. To establish your Credit, acquaint your bank intimately with your affairs.

Do this, not only for the bank's own information, but in order that the bank may give a correct report about you to those who are constantly asking banks for such information.

The largest banks, most widely known, naturally receive the the greatest number of requests for Credit reports, both from in and out of the city. Therefore, in looking toward building up your Credit, it is wise to form an association with such a bank.

Then—develop promptness in meeting every agreement in connection with any obligation. Many people start to abuse their Credit when they get in a little bad shape. That's the worst thing in the world to do because then is when one needs Credit most. Be prompt always in meeting your obligation—but especially so when forced to depend most upon your Credit.

Any officer of this bank will be glad to discuss Credit building with you.

COBBLER WRITES MUSIC FOR PAGEANT

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—In the production of the Indian pageant Laguna, fortunate in many things, maintains her fortune in having here a cobbler musician. Robert Messinger all his life a musician playing in the best symphony orchestras and bands of the world and still composing lovely melody and rich harmony as he works with last and awl, has undertaken successfully to complete the orchestration of original Indian melodies which played by a trained orchestra of music lovers and professionals, will accompany the vivid and brilliant action and color of Mr. Frazee's play.

The very names chosen for the songs in the pageant are redolent of the play's beauties, of the inner harmonies of Indian life and song. The first on Messinger's list is called simply "A Very Old Melody" and it is played on the lover's flute as is a later song called "The Love Call." Others have the sonorous titles of "The Thunderbird," "The Sky Will Resound," "The Warrior's Song," and "The Moccasin Game Song."

Messinger says:

"My melodies are all collected from volumes of the reports of 'The Bureau of American Ethnology,' printed at the government printing office in Washington. I took special care to keep strictly to the original melodies, harmonized them in different ways (with the exception of one melody of my own origin) and which was already harmonized by John C. Fillmore) arranged them together in such a way as to be presented in two different 'Preludes' which the performance of the pageant play necessitates. I have been promised some real Indian drums which will enable me to give original color to the orchestration. Other numbers of my own origin are 'Goblin Music' and 'Snake Music' and the last 'Prayer.' Our orchestra rehearsals started last week privately and will keep on so until our presence is required at the pageant grounds."

Messinger has been soloist in such famous organizations as Damrosch's New York Symphony Orchestra and Sousa's Band.

Art Notes.
 Harold Weaver has completed a highly decorative panel painting soon to find its permanent place over the fireplace of a Los Angeles connoisseur and art lover. The panel shows a prospector and his burro outlined against the sunset sky as they are pushing across the top of a sand hill in the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wendt are to have the largest exhibition gallery of the Chicago Art Institute for an exhibition of his paintings and her sculpture from September 23rd until October 23rd next. The number of pictures and pieces to be exhibited is uncertain as some of them, of course, will be completed between the present and the time of the opening but the Wendts expect to be able to fill effectively even so large a gallery as the one reserved for them. Both of the artists will go to Chicago at the time of the exhibit.

THEATERS
 Hans Hanke, who is declared to be America's foremost pianist and who is a favorite of the Orpheum circuit, will come to Santa Ana tomorrow, when he will headline the Melkie-John & Dunn vaudeville road show at the Yost theater.

A year ago Hans Hanke announced his retirement from all except the concert stage—but vaudeville has its entrancements and he will make his 1921 debut in Santa Ana, previous to another tour of the greatest vaudeville circuits in the world.

Hanke when playing in concert demands and secures prices ranging from $2 to $5. In Santa Ana tomorrow he will be but one of the vaudeville attractions, and the usual vaudeville road show prices will prevail.

"So, who can say that the price of entertainment is not coming down?" asked Manager E. D. Yost, today. "When world-famous artists can be brought to a city the size of Santa Ana without an advance of prices, it speaks well for the H. C. of O."

Manager Yost has announced that Hanke's contract calls for positively no one being seated during his occupation of the stage. This means that those who desire to hear him must come early.

In addition to the vaudeville program, Mary Miles Minter in her latest photoplay, "Don't Call Me Little Girl," will be included.

"We defy any theater in the country, regardless of seating capacity or size, to equal or surpass the program at the Yost theater tomorrow and Wednesday at our prices," declared Manager Yost.

OLD EAGLE EYE AT THROTTLE OF 999
 ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 25.—Charles Hogan, 70, who mannequed the old engine 999, when he made her record run of 112.5 miles an hour on May 10, 1893, was again at the throttle of the famous Empire Stater when she left here for Chicago, drawing the old Dewitt Clinton train.

Hogan declared he did not know whether he could hold the throttle all the way to Buffalo, but insisted he would engineer the trip over the scene between Lancaster and Crittenden, where he established the record that has never been beaten.

The train is to form part of an exhibit at a pageant of progress in Chicago.

BELOVED DEACONESS ANSWERS LAST CALL

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 25.—Miss Minnie Steele, for several years the superintendent of the Deaconess Rest home on Eighth street, passed away last Monday morning at a sanitarium in Pasadena, after an illness of several months.

Miss Steele was born in Illinois, January 14, 1870. For twenty-five years she was engaged in deaconess work for the Methodist church and had but recently retired from active work on a pension. She was active in the work in Chicago, Minneapolis, Denver and Los Angeles. For the past eight years she has been superintendent of the Deaconess Rest home in this city. Besides an aged father, James Steele, of Pomona, she leaves two half-sisters. Dressed in her deaconess gown, she lay amid a bank of sweetest flowers. Friends of hers in Huntington Beach carried her to her resting place in the Pomona cemetery. They were:

S. E. Andrews, C. E. Wright, C. A. Paul and W. D. Seeley.

The funeral was held at the M. A. Hanson chapel, Pomona, at 2 o'clock. "Face to Face," and a solo, "Abide With Me," were beautifully sung.

The Rev. Walter Buckner, pastor of the Methodist church, delivered an eloquent address on the life that has departed. He spoke of the useful life she has led, helping the poor and needy, aiding the young and aged, finding employment for some of the many strangers who came to these great cities.

It was Miss Steele who was instrumental in starting the Travelers' Aid, of Los Angeles, meeting trains and guiding straying footsteps in the strange cities to which they had come.

Her mission was to help and guide. A sweet girl had given her life to the city's crowds, aiding the traveler, comforting the lonely and being a friend to the friendless.

Now that her life has closed, The Great Traveler's Aid—Jesus—is guiding her footsteps into the new city of Jerusalem and there she will continue to serve, but without the aches and pains "that flesh is heir to."

A fearless woman, amid a crowd That thronged the daily mart, Let fall a word of hope and love Unstudied from the heart, A whisper on the tumult thrown, A transitory breath.

It raised a brother from the dust It saved a soul from death. —BERTHA PROCTOR.

INITIATIVE SOUGHT BY CHIROPRACTORS
 Chiropactors of the state today launched a campaign for signatures to a petition for an initiative measure to be submitted at the next general election to make the practice of chiropractic legal. The movement is being directed by the educated Chiropactors of California. A central campaign committee has been organized and will operate in two sections, north and south. Headquarters in Los Angeles is in the Copp building.

The measure provides that a board of chiropractic examiners be created, to be appointed by the governor and paid from receipts under the act; prescribes powers and duties thereof; prohibits practice of chiropractic without license therefrom and authorizing issuance thereof to certain chiropractic graduates and establishing prerequisites of study and other conditions to such issuance. It also provides for the revocation of such licenses.

The film showing at the Temple Theater, Tuesday evening, July 26, is very educating. Look at the Studebaker announcement, July 23, 25 or 26.

URGES BETTER STUDY OF AMERICAN ART
 CHICAGO, July 25.—There is in the United States a slight movement toward the adoption of native American design in ornaments, but, says Stanley Field, president of the Field Museum of Natural History, it has scarcely touched the surface.

"The producers of art pottery," Field said, "would find a fertile field for the production of new ideas, both of forms and ornament, by the study of the old master in this line, the Chinese and Japanese, the Egyptians, and particularly the natives of America, from Arizona to the Argentine."

"Teachers of basketry should inculcate into their charges some of the wonderful craftsmanship shown by the native Indians of western North America. This industry would at once become a fine art."

Rough Battler From Santa Barbara on Wednesday Night Bill at Delhi

Wednesday's Fight Program
Main Event—Bert Tribbey, Santa Barbara, vs. Kid Wagner, Los Angeles, 160 pounds.

Double Semi-Windup — Buzzsaw Burrows, San Pedro, vs. K. O. Swail, Santa Ana, 145 pounds.

Preliminaries — Kid Gatten, Santa Ana, vs. Young Dudley, Anaheim, 138 pounds.

Lava Gatten, Santa Ana, vs. Young Heller, Hemet, 122 pounds.

After nearly a month of inaction, Santa Ana fight fans were today looking forward to Bert Tribbey's next boxing show set for Wednesday night in the Delhi arena.

Ellis has arranged a well-balanced card for local ring fanatics with the burly Bert Tribbey, who has been knocking them all for a loop, as the topnotcher. The husky Santa Barbara pug will have his hands full when he clashes with Kid Wagner, popular Los Angeles battler.

Buzzsaw Burrows of San Pedro, and K. O. Swail of Santa Ana, are both set for one of the semi-windup affairs. Both boys are in shape and should put up a mean mill. Ellis will stage a double semi-windup program Wednesday, Jap Romero of San Diego, and Jack Sparr of Los Angeles, being the other principals.

Kid Gatten of Santa Ana, and Young Dudley have been matched for one of the preliminary bouts and Lava Gatten of Santa Ana, and Young Heller of Hemet, will exchange taps in the other go.

Tomorrow, in the pleasant showers,
Today's unpleasant fret."

SHALL LOS ANGELES DOMINATE?

Los Angeles commercial interests—municipal, industrial, merchandizing, journalistic—have evidently entered upon a deliberate campaign to swallow up all of Southern California, with a view to making Southern California its very own.

San Bernardino, Riverside, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Bakersfield, El Centro, together with a number of other interior cities, are leading a statewide fight in bringing the counties that Los Angeles and San Francisco legislators always refer to as "cow counties" to a realization of their peril politically and in a business way.

San Bernardino and Riverside are especially alarmed over Los Angeles' well known and well developed plan to grab all of the available water power sites within its reach.

The fight that San Bernardino and Riverside counties started has aroused county and city leaders all over the state. The interest is especially keen in those counties that are dependent upon electric power for their future land and industrial development.

"The back country is rapidly awakening to the full import of the situation that is being created by the ruthless rapacity of Los Angeles," says the Riverside Press, in speaking of the power situation.

"The question comes directly home to us as to whether we believe in our home city, and how much we believe in it," declares the San Bernardino Sun, also speaking of the Los Angeles program for control of power. "Industrial growth on any big scale is likely to be impossible in the face of such conditions. These are not peculiar to San Bernardino; they affect Colton and Redlands, Riverside and Ontario, Pomona and Santa Ana quite as much and precisely in the same way they do us."

"Los Angeles would crush the whole south, including the states of Arizona and Nevada, in her wild ambition toward aggrandizement," is the declaration of the El Centro Progress. "All towns, agricultural districts and other communities would be compelled to get down on their knees to Los Angeles in order to obtain electricity enough to pump water or burn lights within ten years from this date if the plans outlined by Bill Mulholland, W. B. Mathews and others in the angel city are carried out."

The Long Beach Press this week points out that it may be true, as has been charged, that certain Los Angeles interests are fighting Long Beach for fear that Long Beach will become "the Oakland of the South."

The reaching out of Los Angeles for more business for itself, and a corresponding breaking down of business in the smaller cities of Southern California, is shown in numerous ways. One method sanctioned by the big Los Angeles department stores has in view a gobbling up of trade of the smaller cities through the free distribution of Los Angeles newspapers carrying Los Angeles advertising. In this respect the mercantile interests of Los Angeles have long and longingly looked upon the flesh pots of Orange county and gnashed their teeth because they could not buy advertising space in the local newspapers.

There is not a city in Southern California that has not suffered by the ruthlessness of big Los Angeles interests. With the present determined program evidently agreed upon, looking to the swallowing up of all Southern California's business, it behooves the cities of Southern California outside of Los Angeles to stand their ground and fight for their own futures.

WHY THIS BITTERNESS?

In its reply to denunciations by the Automobile club of Southern California, the state highway commission has gone straight to the heart of the cause of destruction of paved highways in this state.

The automobile club, which has been conducting a determined campaign of attack upon the state commission, has charged incompetency and failure to keep abreast of the times in road construction.

Examples of roads that have failed to stand up are pointed out by the automobile club, just as though that proved either competency or incompetency. Measured by that kind of bare fact, there is not a competent supervisor, engineer or city official in California, for every county and city has seen the breaking up of roads that, when built, were declared by engineers of recognized ability and experience to be adequate to all needs of traffic.

"Unprecedented increase in automobile traffic and gross overloading of trucks."

Thus, the state highway commission gets at the heart of the difficulty.

The problem of the paved road of today and of the future can be stated in very simple language:

The paved roads built hitherto cannot stand up under the traffic of today. To save the roads already built, the placing of trucking under drastic regulation is necessary. For the future, the authorities must build roads heavier than ten years ago was thought necessary. Trucking as an economic need and convenience is not going to diminish—rather, it will grow. Until such time as our roads are in shape to handle whatever trucking may come, load and speed limitations for trucks are absolutely necessary.

And there is nothing to be gained by massed attacks by automobile clubs upon the state highway commission. These attacks savor more of politics than of public service, more of spite than of a desire to get somebody's scalp than of an intent to aid in working out a problem that is troubling every road commission, every board of supervisors and every city council that has pavements in charge, in this state.

BOLSHEVIST ELECTIONS

"If the Bolsheviks do not rule by the will of the people, how do they manage to remain in office?" many an American has asked. One answer has been that Lenin has not yet permitted a national election. There are, however, local elections, in which officers are chosen who play such part as Lenin permits them to play in the "Soviet Government." How these are elected is revealed by Morris Zucker, one of the organizers of the Communist Party in the United States, who has seen a new light since he made a pilgrimage to Russia. He explains:

"The workers of a certain factory or group of factories are notified, usually a day or two in advance, that an election is to take place. Meanwhile the Communist Party group among the workers, who average 10 per cent or 15 per cent of the total number, hold a caucus and decide upon their candidates.

The list of names is then presented to the party executive which passes upon them.

"At the meeting where the delegates are to be elected seldom more than 20 per cent of the workers come, although in some districts their presence is compulsory. An official of the government opens the meeting and delivers a campaign speech in behalf of the Communist Party. Finally the chairman reads the list of candidates.

"No discussion of these candidates is permitted. No others can be nominated as substitutes; no candidates of any other party are permitted. The chairman, after reading this list, asks:

"Is there anybody against?"

"Hearing no opposition, these candidates are declared to be unanimously elected. Workers have learned from experience that it does not pay to oppose the official Communist candidates. Sad experience in the past prevents them from doing it. Agents of the Vetchka are placed among the workers. Those who protest are marked men. Invariably they are arrested and charged with counter-revolution or speculation."

So that is a Bolshevik election—or a Soviet or Communist election, if you prefer! Not a sign of democracy which is supposed to underline even Socialism, giving every man as good a chance of representation in public life as every other man. No wonder the credulous dupes of Lenin and Trotsky in this country are coming to their senses. Not even the beloved "proletariat" rules in Russia. Nobody rules but the big political boss.

What Milk Is

Kansas City Star

Milk is the substance expressly provided by Nature for the maintenance of the young animal. It contains all that is requisite for the nourishment and development of the young animal. The compounds of milk are in extraordinary good proportion and in forms easy of assimilation.

Milk is not suitable as the sole article of diet for the adult, because the proportions of fat and protein are in excess of carbohydrates, and because bulk, so necessary for proper elimination, is not supplied by milk. Milk contains such a large percentage of water that an active adult would have to take a very large quantity of milk, indeed, to supply the necessary energy. Milk, although it should not be the whole article of diet for the adult, should, however, be freely taken throughout the period of growth.

The proportion of fats, proteins, carbohydrates and mineral salts varies somewhat with different species and with individuals of the same species. The specific gravity of milk varies from 1.017 to 1.035.

Water forms the chief bulk of milk and averages from 84 to 90 per cent. The average percentages of the solid matter are as follows: Protein 3.3 per cent or about 25 per cent of the solids; fat 4 per cent or about 31 per cent of the total solids; carbohydrate 5 per cent or about 38 per cent of the total solids; mineral matter seven-glycerols of plant, stearin and oleic acids. Fat is found in tiny globules throughout milk. These tiny globules give milk its white color and its capacity. The chief carbohydrate of milk is lactose or milk sugar.

A Reorganized State

San Francisco Chronicle

Public opinion demanded and got a reorganization of the state administrative departments. Correlated and overlapping agencies have been assembled under an appropriate head, or at least a head as nearly appropriate as may be. Some eighty, more or less, independent agencies will disappear or fade away into innocuous desuetude. A few got away. There is no other effective and economical way to carry on the administrative work of the state. Under the old arrangement there was overlapping authority or an unnecessary number of salaried secretaries, and such a subdivision of responsibility as would bankrupt any private business. Some of the departments do not seem very logical and salaries for heads of some departments are not large enough to attract first-rate administrators. Probably they did the best they knew how.

The change was necessary, but it involves many heart burnings and the loss of the services of some able business men on the unpaid boards. All these boards seem to have been retained in an "advisory" capacity, but first-class men accustomed to act and decide are not likely to bother themselves with policies which they have no power to adopt or enforce. The new plan starts August 1.

It remains to be seen whether there will be more or less of the state's money go in the form of salaries in payment for political work done for the appointing power.

Building on the Increase

Santa Paula Chronicle

One of the most encouraging features of the business outlook is the resumption of building activity. Statistics from the country at large show more buildings in progress than for years.

Contracts awarded in 26 northeastern states for April totaled more than a quarter of a billion dollars, the largest on record for an April, and an increase of 34 per cent over March. In some sections the increase reached 71 per cent and all sections report gains over previous months.

Residential construction leads all other building, as the nation is short over 1,500,000 homes as a result of retarded construction during the war. Slightly lower wage scales and cheaper lumber have acted as a stimulant to building, but there must be still further readjustment in prices before there will be a real building boom.

Building, in addition to affording employment to thousands of men in the building and allied trades, stimulates many other industries, makes business for railroads and augments the purchasing power of the country and demand for commodities.

Today's Talk

SHOPPERS

One of the important acquirements, as well as natural instincts, of the woman's make-up is the art of shopping. She takes to it as an alert dog does to a treed coon.

And may she never continue adept at it!

It was in thinking of this that I said to myself this shopping thing is not confined to the lady side at all. We are all shoppers. It's a natural business—a human affair. We shop for knowledge. We shop for place in the world. We shop for the thing that may most fit our abilities. We shop for love!

We are shoppers—all. Yes, indeed.

Among other things I am a book shopper. I thrill at a bargain in a book as a woman does to a bargain in lace.

We shop for friends, too. And every once in a while we pull one close to us and whisper into its soul that we want it to stay close by us for a long time—maybe forever.

Ideas have to be shopped after, also. Even success has to be angled for and coaxed.

Life is a shopping tour! Along road sides, up in the mountains, beside quiet, rippling waters, in offices, intermixed with crowded street throngs, no matter where, there are displayed virtues and vices alike in people. And it is from them that we must do our shopping—take that which is able to make us more able, stronger, and fully fit for a happy sojourn.

Man has what the animal lacks most—the power of choice, moral choice. And it is this which will make Man immortal if anything can.

But being born shoppers, there is no one who may be left stranded, bereft of anything. He may pick the things that lie closest—be they ever so simple and humble. The trouble lies in people going to sleep and closing their eyes to "bargains" in happiness!

Hunt around. When least you expect, you are most apt to find. That is the way with this strange world.

Be a game shopper. Don't be afraid to get sore feet and a lame back and tired eyes. The thing you most desire is probably just as anxious to meet you as you are to meet it.

And if you don't find it today, get up bright and early tomorrow—and go shopping all over again!

The Velvet Hammer

BY A. B. B.

There are a flock of gold mines on this noted planet's crust, from some of which we get the wheels embossed "In God we trust." From others we derive at times a large supply of hope, of dreams and visions pleasing in their radiance and scope, but Kelly says his Quincey mine is very short due to pull a very handsome little stunt of coming through.

But should it fail to yield the stuff that's in the owner's mind, another sober source of it is not so far to find. He's agent for the Lincoln car, a hummer and beaut, for which the outlook on the sales is properly acute. It makes a strong oration to the restless human eye, for many only need to look and then they want to buy.

He's been a motor merchant for a period of years and has his speeches well prepared on body, paint and gears. He has a fund of jollity, the kind that lasts for keeps and never entertains the mood which calls for kicks and weeps.

LIGHTING THE WAY

The friendly rays that fall to-night
Down roads our trusting footsteps take,
Ages ago, from some vast night,
Left some bright star that may be dead.

So words go taking swerveless flight
To guide men's steps on some far way;
May only love and truth go out to light
Those brothers on that fateful way.

—Anna Catherine Markham.

Pop was smoking and thinking and I was just thinking, and I sed, Hay pop, wat are you thinking of getting me for my birthday?

To tell you the truth my thaws havent bin running in that direction at all, my mind is so full of petty personal matters that I have practically no time to devote to big public questions, sed pop.

Being sourcastic, and I sed, Well hay pop, you get me one of those punching bags that goes up on the ceiling? They only cost $20 and Puds Simkins has got one so has Sid Hunt and so has Leroy Shoofter.

Sounding like a pretty good of a argement, and pop sed, Are you quite sure those boys all have one?

Yes sir, I'm so sure I'm positive, I sed.

Well then you can take terms using theirs and avoid having the noise eround the house, sed pop.

Me thinking, Heck, and I sed, Well then hay pop, how about a bewgle so I can lern all the bewgle calls? None of the fellows have got a bewgle, pop, so I'll be the only one has one.

Do you mean to say not a single one of the boys has a bewgle? sed pop, and I sed, No sir, nobodys got one and that would make me the only original one.

It duzzent do to be too original in this world, people are libel to misunderstand you, sed pop, and I sed, Well then G, gosh, pop, cant I have a bewgle for my birthday?

No, sed pop.

Proving sometimes no argement is eny good.

Flag Etiquette

Lower the flag at sunset.
Raise the flag at sunrise or after; never before.

It is a mark of disrespect to permit the flag to fly throughout the night.

A flag flown upside down is a signal of distress.

There should be forty-eight stars, on for each state, in the United States flag.

It is improper to use the flag in lieu of a table cover, as is often thoughtlessly done at public meetings.

If the flag is hung lengthwise, the field should be at the right hand, as one faces the colors. If hung as the flag flies the field will be at the left of a person facing it.

An act of congress provides a severe penalty for desecration of the flag. The printing of advertising matter upon the flag or upon a facsimile of the colors is prohibited.

When the flag passes in a parade or review, the spectator should, if walking, halt; if sitting, arise, stand at attention and salute. Civilians should remove their hats, although women are expected only to stand respectfully until the colors pass.

All men in uniform of any branch of the army and navy are required to stand at attention and salute until the colors have passed.

Why You Live

San Bernardino Telegram

Sometimes you wonder what the purpose is in making you live this life. You meditate: What is it all about, this thing we call life? What is man? What am I? What is my present existence here on earth a preparation for?

An answer to these questions is attempted in a new theory, discussion of which is eclipsing Einstein in the scientific world. The theory is called "time-binding." Its author is Count Alfred Korzybski, Polish nobleman, who explains it in his new book, "Manhood of Humanity."

Plants have only one purpose—take energy from the sun and convert it into chemical energy. Plants can't move about. Animals eat the plants and, while they can move about in space at will, they also are space-bound.

But man is not caged by space. He moves in time, hence he is time-bound. That is, what you do now exerts a definite influence on things that will happen after you are materially dead. Like Elias Howe, who, by inventing the sewing machine, started something that gave him tremendous influence after his death.

No horse knows that his ancestors were as small as cats. No horse is making plans for the future condition of horses. That's because horses, like all plants and animals, are space-bound.

Prehistoric bees did their work exactly the same way as bees of today. No expert bee passed on to future generations any discoveries about how to make honey in less time. Bees, like all animals and plants, are space-bound—concerned only with the present, ignorant of the past, oblivious to the future.

Man, however, has the time-binding which frees him from space. Ever he has sought, learned and passed on to posterity ways of getting greater results in less time.

Most of the material wealth now existing in the world is not the product of the toil of those now living. It is a gift from the dead—and this is as true of organized society and efficient methods of doing things as it is true of physical gifts from past generations—such as clearing timber land for farms or building railroads.

Man records history, acquires wisdom, makes progress and creates material and spiritual wealth to be passed on to future generations.

Animals cannot do this, Korzybski points out. He has sought, learned and passed on to posterity ways of getting greater results in less time.

Hence man is not animal. He has conquered space-bound nature.

He has the power of time-binding—the ability to use the present as a link to bind the past to the future.

Obviously, then, the function of every man and woman—including yourself—is service to humanity for the present and for all time, not merely a matter of personal or present gain like space-bound animals.

SKIN ERUPTIONS

Q. Have a son who has about eight skin eruptions on body which probably are ringworms. What are the causes of same?

A. It is almost impossible to arrive at a proper conclusion regarding the nature of a skin eruption from a written description. Your son may be suffering from ringworm or from one of the many other skin eruptions which are quite common during childhood. For this reason, I would advise you to consult a skin specialist in order to be properly advised as to the proper thing to do for this child.

Probably one of the most common skin eruptions in children is eczema, which in a large number of instances is due to some dietary disturbances.

ADENOIDS

Nature intends that we should breathe through the nose and has so arranged matters that the air is strained, warmed and moistened as it passes through the nose. This is very important.

Unfortunately, 10 per cent or more of all children have adenoids which interfere with free breathing through the nose.

One of the first results of the growth of adenoids is mouth breathing. When this condition develops, the air breathed in reaches the throat and lungs in an unpurified condition. Moreover, it is not sufficiently warmed or moistened.

Adenoids affect the voice, distort the facial expression, interfere with hearing, give rise to night terrors, open the way for serious infections by disease germs, and, through the development of chronic nasal catarrh, may lead to loss of the sense of smell.

Whenever adenoids are large enough to give rise to any of the symptoms described, they should be removed.

The operation is a simple one and not dangerous and relief is immediate. Health and strength of the child usually improve rapidly afterwards.

Bear Stories for Bedtime

CHAPTER 96.

THE BEAR-HUNT IN THE BARN
By Harvey Elliott.

Tommy Smith showed his father and mother the tracks of Billy Bear in the barn-lot. They agreed that there had been a bear around not very long before. The question was, "Where is it now?"

Tommy advanced his theory that old Bessie had taken after the bear and had chased him into the barn. Farmer Smith said that it looked reasonable enough and that there was little doubt that the bear was hiding in the barn at that very moment.

Billy Bear could have raised right up and told them that there wasn't any bear in the barn, but for some reason he didn't do it. Would you have done it if you had been in Billy's place? Billy Bear couldn't keep his head down any longer. He just had to see the fun the Smiths would have running a bear out of a barn that didn't have any bear in it.

"You go in, Dad, and run him out," said Tommy, "and I will whack him with my ball-bat."

"Go in yourself," answered Farmer Smith, "and I will shoot him with my gun."

But neither Farmer Smith nor his boy would agree to go in and chase out the bear. They both seemed to prefer to do their work on the outside.

"You do it, mother," said Tommy, "All you need to do is to stick that broom in his eyes."

Mother Smith tiptoed up to the door and put her head in and looked all around. "Shoo!" she said, as she waved her broom through the air.

Just then Mother Smith saw some fuzzy looking thing move and she dropped her broom and screamed till you could have heard her a mile. Tommy ran around one corner and held his base-ball bat ready to smash the red thing that came around. Farmer Smith ran around
